

My Dearest Mar Mar,

What an amazing adventure and journey it was to be with you in our session. ~ From the moment the ascended masters arrived in your receiving area I knew I was in for quite a ride.

I have been asked before to journey on the path of the mystery school, but by one who could not accept me without judgment. The high priestess that she was and is allowed her jealous nature and ego impede our progress. Within my own divine Self, you recognize my perfection from within and without. So journey we must together as east meets west. I do not know how that will manifest, but I give you my unending gratitude. Very few have been able to meet me in this place where you do.

The journey today was deeply sweet with so much lightness! I journeyed with you, as you. Perhaps you have been designated as one of my master teachers to be sure for that which I came to this earth plane to do will not falter. You will help me complete this work in spite of my human shortcomings, physical vulnerabilities or failings.

Although I have stepped in the light so many times now and before, this was a cleansing I needed to transcend the physical vulnerabilities that I have chosen to experience this lifetime. Your inner strength combined with mine, will move mountains. We must guide our world leaders, our planet, and those who do not even know the depth of this guidance. It is this divine love that will help others to transcend that which is so necessary, knowingly or unknowingly.

There is so much work to do but I know now you have come to me, to join you, so the work will be lighter. So many need you; the world work can continue with more light-ness, like a pillow of clouds, we will give the foundation of light-ness, because they are of us.

I give you a gift of sweetness to carry you through your gift of Light-ness to me, as we reflect it to and through the Universe. We are truly Light Beings, Tall and Wise in our etheric bodies, Soft and Warm in our human form. I have known this for some time, but something has been over shadowing the Light Being-ness. No longer is this so. Thank you my sister of light, for you have removed a veil, ever so thin, that was between my Light Self/ and my human form. Both of these forms I love with all my heart, just as I do you.

You have healed many physical samskaras from my past so that my light will shine so much more brightly. Many will have to don sunglasses, accepting what they can, for now, until they can remove them and let in all of the light that we hold.

I know from our experience today, I can now receive the teachings of the mystery school in full embrace, because I trust you as I trust my own heart to enter and dance in that realm with you – for the higher Good, because of course my Mar Mar that has always been our true purpose.

Every path and every teacher has led me to this, I thank them one and all.

With Great Respect and Love,
"Little Grasshopper"
